

LOVE – what is it for?

LIFE – how do we live it?

SOCIETY – what is our role in or out of it?

The class you've been waiting for is being offered at LaGuardia this Fall!

Literature from Russia in the 20th century holds the keys to some of life's greatest mysteries.

Impress your friends, impress your future employers, open up a new world, and have a great time doing it by reading and discussing great Russian literature of the 20th century – right here at LaGuardia. No knowledge of Russian is required.

Great literature + great discussions = Great News for YOU

Sign up TODAY for:

ELR250: Twentieth Century Russian Literature in Translation

Questions? E-mail course instructor Rebekah Smith at resmith@lagcc.cuny.edu