Who We Are

The Japanese Program at Hunter College started more than three decades ago. Currently the program is led by Dr. Maayan Barkan and Akiyo Furukawa, and instructs more than 1,000 students each year.

The program offers NYC's only Major in Japanese Language and Culture, as well as two minors.

The program connects students with working professionals through cultural events, academic symposia, trips to NYC's Japanese cultural institutions, and internship opportunities.
